

One Lazy Writer, Six-Figures and Recession-Proof Living

Hi, my name is Mindy McHorse, and I've got an exciting story to tell you. Not so long ago, I used to be stuck in a dead-end job doing something I hated buried in a mountain of debt. I felt like I lived in prison. That was until I stumbled upon The Barefoot Writer Club. Fast forward to today, and now I make six-figures from home, and I work about four hours a day.

Sure, I work in my pajamas and bare feet on occasion. But it's so much more than that. The freedom to live your best life is what it's all about. Want a few more reasons to consider the writer's life?

- Huge financial Opportunity
 - Freedom to work from home
 - You're the boss
- Learn it today, secure your future for tomorrow.

Huge Opportunity to make the money you want

See, I got a letter in the mail a few years ago that changed my life forever. It was from Paul Hollingshead, and he was one of the founders of American Writers & Artists Inc. AWAI for short. He said he was a lazy writer but still managed to make an amazing $300,000 a year living the writer's life. I was intrigued... So, I read more.

Freedom to work from home anywhere anytime

The Barefoot Writer Club is a group of happy, dedicated writers who make very good money working at home living their best life. That means never working late to appease the boss or missing out on your kid's soccer games, or better yet not having someone else call the shots. It's about FREEDOM, freedom to have work-life balance, earn a great living, travel, enjoy your family, and your career.

This secret writing club teaches you how to make money at home writing about things you enjoy and get paid very handsomely in the process. No more 9-5's or worse.

You're the boss

You're the boss. You call the shots. And you know what's even better? There are many ways you can make a great living as a writer. It's not about writing a novel or an article that may pay peanuts. It's about real in-demand writing that hardly anybody even knows about. It's about being in demand and standing out in the crowd as the go-to expert in your niche.

And, no experience necessary, no pricey start-up investments, an English or writing degree is totally unnecessary.

But what about the lazy writer I mentioned? Paul is just one of the many well-paid writers that work a few hours a day and has the freedom to do what he wants when he wants. He calls himself lazy because he could make so much more, but he doesn't want to.

When you join the Barefoot Writer Club, you will get to hear all about so many others who've decided to take the plunge and live the writer's life. They will teach you how you can too.
